A. Launch Vocabulary Logs - RL. 8.4 - (5 minutes)

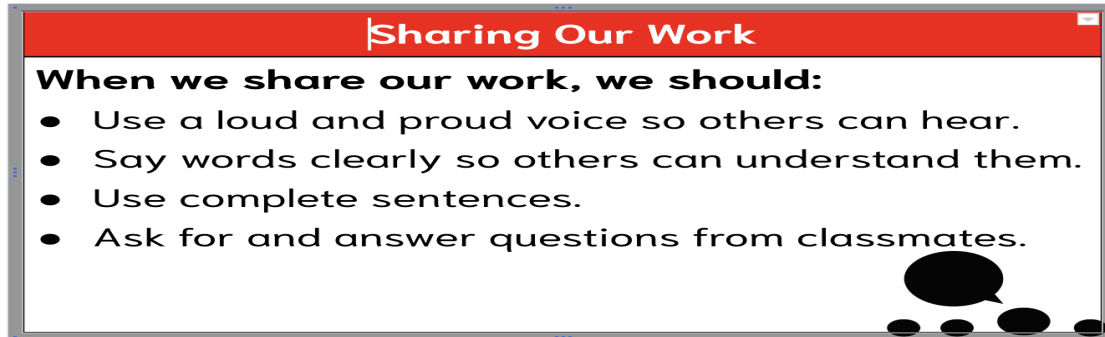

- Distribute vocabulary logs. Pages 4 + 5
- Students will Draw tables at the back of their note books for future vocabulary logs
- Students read through the definitions of academic vocabulary and domain-specific vocabulary at the top of the vocabulary forms.
- Students restate these definitions in their own words.
- Teacher adds a model for students who need additional support

B. Engage the Learner - 5 minutes

- Students' attention is directed to the posted learning targets, a volunteer reads them aloud:
  - "I can show empathy and respect as I listen to my classmates."
  - "I can find the gist of the chapter 1 excerpt of Summer of the Mariposas."
  - "I can determine the difference between academic and domain-specific vocabulary."
- ☐ Students Turn and Talk about the most important words in the learning targets
- ☐ Teacher tells students that the definitions of academic vocabulary (words often found in informational texts on many different topics) and domain-specific vocabulary (words about a particular topic, such as poetry) can be found on the top of their vocabulary forms.
- ☐ Teacher focuses students on the words gist and determine. Total participation techniques to select students to share what they think these words mean (Equity Sticks). If they don't know the meanings, share strategies they could use to determine them (context).

- ☐ Teacher encourages students to use the words in a sentence

TURN AND TALK

QUESTIONS

- “What do you think you will be doing in this lesson, based on these learning targets?” (We will be listening to one another, determining what chapter 1 of our class novel is mostly about, and finding out the exact difference between vocabulary that is academic and vocabulary that is specific to the topic we are exploring.)
- “Why are we doing this? How is it meaningful to you? How will it help you to be successful?” (Listening to and empathizing with others are important skills that make us better people. Being able to determine what a text is mostly about is crucial for our comprehension. Distinguishing between words can help us acquire new vocabulary and determine how and when to best use it.)

C. Reflect on the Module Guiding Questions - 5 minutes

Review the learning target relevant to the work to be completed in this section of the lesson:

“I can show empathy and respect as I listen to my classmates.”

- Teacher/student reads the guiding questions from yesterday. Teacher asks students to share any discussions they had with family about the guiding questions from last night's homework.
- Teacher shares a personal story about Latin American Folklore and reflect on how family and culture has impacted her own identity.

Work Time - A - 15 minutes

Read Aloud and Identify Vocabulary:
Summer of the Mariposas,
Chapter 1 Excerpt

Work Time A

A. Read Aloud and Identify Vocabulary: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 1 Excerpt – RL.8.4

- Review the learning target relevant to the work to be completed in this section of the lesson:
  - “I can find the gist of the chapter 1 excerpt of Summer of the Mariposas.”
- Students retrieve Summer of the Mariposas, and remind them of what they thought the text might be about.
- Read aloud the excerpt of chapter 1 as students read along silently. Refer to the Text Guide: Summer of the Mariposas (for teacher reference) for the excerpt, questions, and vocabulary. If students are able to read independently or in small groups, group students accordingly and set the time for them to read the excerpt.
- After 10 minutes of reading time, Teacher distributes Synopsis: Summer of the Mariposas, Prologue and Chapter 1 to each student.
- Throughout the reading, students should record new words in their vocabulary logs. Students should aim to record a minimum of three new vocabulary words. Collect Spanish words encountered on chart paper, inviting Spanish speakers to translate the words.

- Give students 2 minutes to silently reflect on the text. Encourage them to consider how the chapter made them feel. They can write or sketch, or just sit and think.
- Direct students' attention to the Work to Become Ethical People anchor chart, and review "respect" and "empathy" as needed.
- Introduce a new habit of character. Read aloud what it says about compassion:

Questions

- "What does compassion look like? What might you see when someone is showing empathy to someone else?"
- "What does compassion sound like? What might you hear when someone is showing empathy to someone else?"
- "How have you seen the Garza sisters show compassion in chapter 1 of Summer of the Mariposas?"

B. Find the Gist: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 1 Excerpt – SL.8.1 - 10 minutes

- Review the learning target relevant to the work to be completed in this section of the lesson:

"I can find the gist of the chapter 1 excerpt of Summer of the Mariposas."

- Teacher cold call a student to give the definition of gist as recorded in their notebooks
- Teacher explains that (We find the gist to check our understanding and to make a note of this and be able to navigate back to key places in the text quickly.)

THINK -PAIR-SHARE

Find the Gist

- What happened?
- What are the main events?
- How is the plot unfolding?
- What is the gist?
- What is this chapter mostly about?

Did the girls do the right thing?
Why or why not?

Questions

- “What happened? What are the main events? How is the plot unfolding?”
(We learn that the main character and her sisters have been abandoned by their father and have become a little wild and independent because their mother is busy working. The sisters are playing in a river when they find a dead body floating in the water. The sisters debate whether to involve the authorities or handle the situation on their own. They find that the man has money in his shoes, and he also has identification and pictures of his children. The man is from an area where the sisters’ grandmother lives, and they know their father might also be there. As they debate what to do about the dead man, Odilia, the narrator, thinks she sees a ghostly figure across the river.)
- “What is the gist? What is this chapter mostly about?” (This chapter is mostly about how the sisters in the story find a dead body and argue over whether they should call the police or return the dead man to his home in Mexico.)
- “Did the girls do the right thing? Why or why not?” (Student responses will vary, but may include the following: no, because a dead body should be left where it is found for the police to identify in case it has evidence.)

Vocabulary Log

Repeated Routine: Follow the same routine to focus students on the words

Vocabulary Log

| gist      | what the text is mostly about                                                      |
| determine | to find out or establish exactly, typically as a result of research or calculation |
| empathy   | the ability to understand and share the feelings of another                        |

Closing and Assessment

A. Reflect on Learning Target - (5 minutes)

- students to reflect on their progress toward the learning target, using a checking for understanding technique—Thumb-O-Meter. Teachers scan student responses, and make a note of students who might need support.

Turn and Talk:

“How did you contribute to this learning community today? How were the tasks you completed valuable to you?”

- (Possible responses: I shared my ideas with my classmate and helped him/her to understand something new. Tracking vocabulary in my vocabulary log will help me to learn new words that I can use in my writing.)

Homework

A silhouette illustration of a child sitting on the grass, looking up at a butterfly. There are flowers and a tree in the background.

Homework

- Read and Reflect
Read and reflect on the guiding questions.
- Preread Anchor Text
Preread Chapter 1 of Summer of the Mariposas.

- A. Read and Reflect: Students read and reflect on the guiding questions for the module and discuss them with their families. They will consider how the guiding questions make them feel. They can sketch or write about their ideas.
- B. Preread Anchor Text: Students preread chapter 1 of Summer of the Mariposas in preparation for studying an excerpt from the chapter in the next lesson.

Differentiation****

Tier 1: Universal Supports (All Students)

- 1. Pair Work for Comprehension:
  - After reading the excerpt, students will review the Synopsis: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 1 in pairs to identify key events. This encourages collaboration and peer support.
- 2. Sentence Fragment Analysis:
  - Introduce additional sentence fragments for all students to analyze, helping them practice sentence structure and identify common errors.
- 3. Visual Aids:
  - Provide graphic organizers outlining key events or characters in the chapter to help students visually map their understanding.

Tier 2: Targeted Supports (Some Students)

- 1. Advance Summary Distribution:
  - Distribute the Summary: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 1 before reading. Direct students to annotate or highlight key events in the text to guide their focus.
- 2. Group Fragment Creation:
  - Organize small groups where students create sentence fragments for their classmates to edit. This fosters critical thinking about sentence structure.
- 3. Audiobook Support:
  - Provide an audiobook version for students to follow along as they read, enhancing comprehension for those who struggle with fluency.

Tier 3: Intensive Supports (Few Students)

- 1. Individualized Annotation Guidance:

- Work with students individually or in very small groups to guide their annotation of key events in the summary and text, offering direct feedback and support.
  - 2. Focused Sentence Structure Practice:
    - Provide targeted instruction on sentence structure for students who need more intensive support, using personalized examples and practice activities.
  - 3. Increased Access to Resources:
    - Ensure that students have frequent access to the synopsis page and other resources, offering additional support as needed to reinforce understanding.
4. Teacher reads to students as they follow along.

For lighter support:

- Before modeling recording the gist of the chapter excerpt, model determining the gist of a single paragraph. Then, ask students to do so with another paragraph in pairs. This breaks down the process using smaller chunks of text to gradually introduce students to the concept of gist.
- For heavier support:
  - To help ELLs recognize gist in the chapter 1 excerpt, prepare sticky notes with prewritten words or drawings based on the gists of different sections of the excerpt. After students read, they match the gists on the sticky notes with the corresponding sections.
  - Audiobook, for students to follow along with as they read texts to help facilitate comprehension.
  - Sora.com
  - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ruk62513OLQ>
  - Students will refer to the synopsis page if they did not finish reading the excerpt or to help with understanding the gist of the chapter
  - Students will complete varying comprehension questions
