CCSS Standards

Focus Standards

These are the standards the instruction addresses.

RL- 8.6 - Analyze how differences in the points of view of the characters and the audience or reader (e.g., created through the use of dramatic irony) create such effects as suspense or humor.

R.L - 8.4 - Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.

L- 8.5 - Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

L- 8.5a - Interpret figures of speech (e.g. verbal irony, puns) in context.

L- 8.5b - Use the relationship between particular words to better understand each of the words.

RL- 8.1- Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

Opening

A. Engage the Learner (5 minutes)

- Students complete Entrance Ticket: Unit 1, Lesson 10.
- Review learning targets
- A student interpret learning targets into their words

Work Time A

A. Language Dive Part II: Summer of the Mariposas, Page 110 – RL.8.4-10 minutes

- Review learning target:

“I can determine the meaning of figurative language in Summer of the Mariposas.”

- Students participate in Part II of a two-part Language Dive to explore language structure used with figurative language.
- Reread aloud page 110 of Summer of the Mariposas.
- Students turn to page 39 in workbooks
- Focus students on the sentence:
“Pita was all bug-eyed and big-eared, nodding like a ratoncita, nervous as a little mouse sitting on the edge of a wooden trap.”
- Teacher uses the Language Dive Guide: to guide students through a Language Dive conversation about the sentence.
- Distribute and display the Language Dive: Summer of the Mariposas, Page 110 note-catcher
- Distribute the Language Dive: Summer of the Mariposas, Page 110 sentence chunk strips.
- Each group receives sentence chunks
- Each group will deconstruct each sentence
- Students will reconstruct the sentences
- Groups will work together to put the chunks in a different order, but keep the same meaning.
- Repeated routine: Invite students to reflect on their progress toward the relevant learning targets. (Thumb-o-meter)

Differentiation

To connect and reinforce students' work with figurative language in and similes during the Language Dive in Work Time A, teacher will provide simile sentence stems that students can use during Work Time B as they discuss La Llorona:

1. La Llorona is _____ like a . . .
2. La Llorona is _____ as . . .

Work Time B

Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8
Read from page 130 "Our car broke" to page 132 "...in every morsel." Then read from page 134 "She wouldn't have" to page 141 "...help me..."	• Record new vocabulary words in your vocabulary log. • Collect Spanish words on the chart paper. • Record the gist.

B. Read Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8 Excerpt (15 minutes)

- Repeated routine: Students read the excerpt of chapter 8 of Summer of the Mariposas
- Students read the excerpt independently
- Support is given to struggling students as needed.
- If students do not finish reading the chapter excerpt within the allotted reading time, distribute Synopsis of ch.8 for review
- Students identify unfamiliar vocabulary, add words to their log to define for homework
- Spanish words are recorded on post Its
- Students record the chapter gist on sticky notes Gist: The girls try to travel to the grandmother's but encounter Cecilia, who lures them to her house and drugs them into a slumber.
- Review Entrance Ticket 1, Lesson 10 - cold-calling or equity sticks to share their responses with the whole group:

La Llorona is a significant character who appears throughout the Summer of the Mariposas. What part does she play in the novel?"

(Student responses will vary, but may include the following: she usually helps Odilia and provides Odilia with guidance.)

- Teacher explains to students that the way Guadalupe Garcia McCall includes La Llorona in the novel is called an allusion, which is a reference to something else. Remind students of the way La Llorona's hair was compared to the serpents on Medusa's head, which was also an allusion.
- Explain that students might hear the phrase, "He/she alluded to the idea that . . .," which means he or she was referencing an idea.
- Record the meaning of allusion on the domain-specific word wall.
- Students record this word in their vocabulary logs.

Think-Pair-Share:

"Given what you know about the folklore story of La Llorona from reading the novel, why do you think La Llorona is helpful in Summer of the Mariposas rather than scary?"

(Student responses will vary, but may include McCall is trying to reveal a different side of La Llorona's story and character.)

- Repeated routine: Students reflect on their progress toward the learning Criteria. (lesson summary + Thumb-o-meter)

Differentiation

For Lighter Support

- During Work Time B, as in Lesson 3, provide students with a sentence frame to use in the Think-Pair-Share:
 - I think La Llorona is helpful in Summer of the Mariposas rather than scary because . . .

Closing and Assessment

Exit Ticket: Analyze Point of View:
Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8
Closing and Assessment

A. Exit Ticket: Analyze Point of View: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8 – RL.8.6(10 minutes)

- Review the learning target relevant to the work to be completed in this section of the lesson:
 - “I can explain what effect is created by differences in the points of view of the characters and the reader in chapter 8 of Summer of the Mariposas.”
- Display and distribute Exit Ticket: Analyze Point of View: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8
- Read the questions aloud
- Students respond to the questions independently.
- Repeated routine: Students reflect on their progress toward the relevant learning targets (Summarize lesson)
- Collect exit tickets as students leave.

Differentiation

For Lighter Support

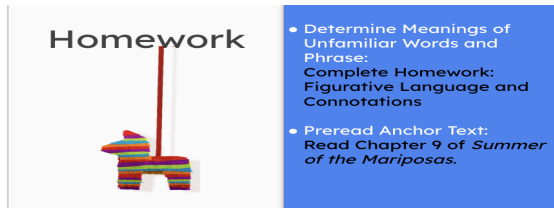

- Students paraphrase the events of chapter 8 of Summer of the Mariposas in more comprehensible language for those who need heavier support. Students need to have a solid understanding of the events in this chapter in order to fully understand the events in chapter 9, which is the basis of content on the Mid-Unit 1 Assessment in the next lesson

For Heavier Support

- Underline key terms in the Exit ticket questions (i.e., infer, effects, supports, point of view) and review the questions together as a class before students begin responding. This will help to ensure that students clearly understand the questions so that they can focus their cognitive processing and attention on the writing they will carry out in the task.

Homework

A. Determine Meanings of Unfamiliar Words and Phrases

- Using Homework: Figurative Language and Connotations, students answer a combination of selected response and short constructed response questions requiring them to determine and analyze the meanings of unfamiliar words and phrases including figurative language and connotations.

B. Preread Anchor Text

- Students should preread chapter 9 of Summer of the Mariposas in preparation for studying an excerpt from the chapter in the next lesson.

Analyze Point of View Anchor Chart

RL.8.1, RL.8.6

Analyze Point of View

The point of view in narrative texts is the narrator's position in relation to the story being told. It shows the opinions or feelings of the individuals involved in a situation. Point of view is the way the author allows the reader to "hear" and "see" what is happening.

Authors often create differences between different characters' points of view, as well as your point of view as a reader. Different characters have different feelings and opinions about what is going on, and so do readers. These differences in point of view between characters and the audience can create different effects, such as suspense or humor.

How does the author use differences in the points of view of the characters and the reader to create effects like suspense or humor?

- Using the first-person point of view, the author enables the reader to see some events that the other characters don't see.
- The author reveals to the reader what the narrator is thinking or feeling that the characters in the novel don't know.
- We feel the feelings of the narrator.

RL.8.3

(Answers for Teacher Reference)

Directions: As you enter class, answer the following question.

La Llorona is a significant character who appears throughout Summer of the Mariposas. What part does she play in the novel?

Student responses will vary, but may include the following: she usually helps Odilia and provides Odilia with guidance.

Language Dive: Summer of the Mariposas, Page 110 Sentence Chunk Strips

Pita was all bug-eyed and big-eared,

nodding like a ratoncita, edge of a wooden trap.

Exit Ticket: Analyze Point of View: Summer of the Mariposas, Chapter 8

RL.8.1, RL.8.6

(Example for Teacher Reference)

Directions: Read chapter 8 of Summer of the Mariposas, then answer these questions.

Reread page 135 from “Feeling the blood rushing . . .” to “. . . I couldn’t even talk.”

Part A

What can the reader infer from her description that Odilia herself does not know? (RL.8.6)

Sample student response: Something in the food Cecilia is giving them is making Odilia forget important things.

Part B

What effect does this create? (RL.8.6)

Sample student response: Suspense. It makes the reader worry for the girls and wonder when they will realize what is happening to them.

Part C

Which line from the text best supports your response? (RL.8.1)

Sample student response: “. . . but my mind was suddenly blank and I couldn’t think what it was I needed to do. I couldn’t even talk.”

Part D

How does the author use narrator’s point of view to create the effect in this scene? Use details from the text to support your response. (RL.8.6)

Sample student response: In this scene, Odilia’s point of view is clouded by whatever she is being given. Odilia can’t clearly see what is happening to her because she has been drugged. As readers, we have a much clearer point of view. Even though Odilia herself doesn’t understand what is happening, we can infer the situation from Odilia’s thoughts and feelings. This creates suspense. We know the girls are in danger, but they do not.

Homework: Figurative Language and Connotations

Name:

Date:

Directions: Reread each excerpt from chapter 8 of Summer of the Mariposas. Using strategies for determining unfamiliar vocabulary, answer the question below.

1. Carefully read these two sentences:

"An apprehension spread into every pore of my being, I did the one thing I could to quiet the guilt in my mind." (126)

"I was very apprehensive, I did the one thing I could to quiet the guilt in my mind."

The sentences in bold have very similar meanings. How does the author's choice to use the phrase "apprehension spread into every pore of my being" affect your understanding of the first sentence? (RL.8.4, L.8.4a, L.8.5b, L.8.5c)

- a. It implies that Odilia is physically ill.
- b. It emphasizes how nervous Odilia is.
- c. It implies that Odilia may die soon.
- d. It warns against eating too much.

Directions: Use the chart below to determine the literary device used in each example and its inferred meaning. (RL.8.4)

Example	Literary Device	Inference (What does it mean?)
"Behind us, the hat spun out into the morning air in a white blur, like a miniature flying saucer, and landed right smack in the middle of the highway." (120)

Example	Literary Device	Inference (What does it mean?)
"Look at him mugging for the camera, like a possum with a mouth full of worms. Funny how I never noticed before how conceited he really is." (122)
"Immediately, the enchanting woman began doting on us, like a tiny yellow butterfly, fluttering about." (130)
"Nighttime had descended upon the spacious house like an unexpected guest." (133)
"All those little windows in the French doors allowed the shimmering moonlight to come in and kiss everything in the room with a glittering silver dust." (140)
